Statement of Group Doctrine

Original and readopted from Christian Home Educators Network (CHEN) www.chenmd.org

- 1) The Bible is the inspired and infallible Word of God and constitutes completed and final revelation. The Bible, in its original autograph, is without error in whole and in part, including theological concepts as well as geographical and historical details.
- 2) God has existed from all eternity in three persons: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Jesus Christ was God come in human flesh being fully God and fully man, except without sin.
- 3) All men are in violation of Gods righteous requirements and His holy character both by nature and act, and are therefore under His wrath and just condemnation. The central purpose of the coming of Jesus Christ was to pay the penalty for mans sin through His substitutionary death on the cross, the successful accomplishment of which was attested to by His subsequent visible, bodily resurrection.
- 4) Salvation is offered as a gift, free to the sinner. This gift must be responded to in individual faith, not trusting in any personal works whatsoever, but in the sacrificial death of Jesus Christ alone.

This above Statement of Group Doctrine adopted from CHEN (www.chenmd.org) acknowledges that we welcome all Christians and cannot be all inclusive of every point of doctrine held by specific churches or denominations. We ask that member families whole heartedly believe and practice the above basic core beliefs of the Christian faith. We also ask that members do not publicly speak negatively against any particular denomination during TLC meetings and events. Our unified goal as homeschool families is to raise our children for the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ and prepare them to serve Him.

By signing below, I agree with the above statements of commitment, church attendance and group doctrine.
